Mrs. Ramsey starts to-day for Olathe where she will keep house with her daughter Ella, who is teaching in the schools there.

Mr. John Bible, of Cowley County, came up last Saturday and will spend a week or two with friends in this neighborhood.

Dr. J. W. Scott will present the protection side of the tariff question at the court house to-night. The talk will begin at 7:30 sharp.

We have another "personal liberty" argument from Col. Smith this week, but it is too long for the crowded condition of this issue.

There was another change at the Wichita depot yesterday, Mr. F. McGinnis taking the place of Mr. Marks, who goes to Piqua.

Mr. S. G. Hunt returned Wednesday evening from his visit to Iowa. He says people are feeling blue over their blighted corn crop.

Dr. Chastain has so far gotten the better of his "pet" as to be about with two shoes on. Politically, however, he isn't so spry as he was.

Judge Talcott returned from Wilson county yesterday. He will probably decide the injunction cases heard last Saturday, to-day or to-morrow.

We hear that Dr. Whitaker, of Carlyle, and our townsman, Frank Wing, will soon embark in the drug business in Eureka Springs, Arkansas.

Word from Miss Maggie Steele reports her in a fine position at Osage Mission, and "barring a little loneliness", enjoying herself greatly.

Various opinions are expressed as to the beauty of the front on the Henderson buildings. It is peculiar, to say the least, and that is one recommendation.

We invite our friends from all over the county to come and see the carloads of stoves at the leading hardware of Allen county, Henderson & Aurine.

The Young Ladies Working Band will give the first oyster supper of the season at the opera house to-night. A good time is expected. All are invited to attend.

R. B. Arnold, manager of the poor farm, asks us to say that he has in charge a female child, three weeks old, and wishes to have it adopted into some good family.

Attorney Knight has bought from L. L. Northrup the two lots south of Dr. Chastain, and has broken ground for the erection of a fine dwelling house.

We take the lead, and all creation acknowledge that our stock of stoves for the fall trade is the finest and best assortment ever seen in Allen county. The Live Hardware.

When you feel cool and chilly just think of McNutt Bros. and then go straight there and ask for one of those new suits of under wear, the best and cheapest in town.

Dr. Gifford asks us to say that the report that he expects to withdraw from the race for the county clerkship, is untrue. He is on the track and intends to stay there until election day.

We are very glad to note that Smyth & Allen are going to give Iola a first-class fancy store. We have seen some of their lists of new goods and their display will astonish the natives.

The anti-Prohibition League and the Good Templars, check by Jewell. Verily, the lion and the lamb are lying down together. They are likely to turn up a monkey and a parrot, however, ere long.

One day (since cheap postage) county clerk Stover received a postal card enclosed in an envelope on which was a three and a one cent stamp—three for the envelope, one for the card, evidently.

We publish in another column, at the request of the Ladies Reading Club, the inaugural poem of its president, Mrs. H. B. Knight, delivered at the last meeting, which will be read with interest.

The habeas corpus case before Judge Talcott last Saturday failed to release the "bad uns" from Humboldt, from the Allen county cooler. Col. Smith says he will take the case to the supreme court.

If you want to feast your eyes on much silver and fine gold, drop in at Tom Powell's and take a look at his new goods. His silver table ware is particularly fine, while he has a large stock of beautiful jewelry.

Lawrence Townsend, tried before Judge Boyd, Wednesday, for threatening to shoot Oscar Epler, was bound over to appear before the District court, and was put under bonds to keep the peace meantime.

The meekness with which the captain generals of the Prohibition camp allowed themselves to be tucked under the wing of the anti-prohibition league last Tuesday and carried on to victory, was an exhibition of Christian charity to make saints on earth rejoice and angels weep for joy.

We were informed yesterday morning that two leaguers had jumped Becklin's farm—his dwelling house having been destroyed in the tornado—and were putting up a building. Our authority seemed good, but we trust no citizen of the county would commit so dastardly an outrage.

Bogie's last loss in the dog line was somewhat peculiar. He brought the dog by rail from Cherokee, twelve miles south of Girard, coming by Ft. Scott, via the Gulf and Wichita roads. The dog had never taken the trip before, but was found at Cherokee, sixty miles across the county from Iola, the next morning.

For the benefit of such of our readers as have never had their attention called to it, we quote the following section of the law governing newspapers: "Any person who receives a newspaper and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber, and is responsible for the subscription price."

Dr. Hendricks made a contract with T. F. Strickland, yesterday, for stone with which to build an office on his lot just east of Beck's new building. The building will be 18x20 and will be located on the rear of the lot, so as to leave room for a large store room in front, upon which the Doctor expects to begin work in the spring. And still we boom.

A PLEASANT REUNION.
Mr. Samuel Bevington's home was the scene of a pleasant family reunion last Wednesday. From abroad there were present: Mr. Henry Gray, Mr. Heman Gray, Mrs. Laura Yarnel, of Iowa, and Mrs. S. Harris, of Chatauqua County, Kansas, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Bevington, who are here on a visit. Relatives in town were represented by Mr. H. P. Gray and family, Messrs. H. L. and J. E. Henderson and families, and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ellis. One of the dinners for which Mrs. Bevington is famous, was served, and the occasion was one long to be remembered by the re-united friends.

INSURANCE.
The following statement of the paid up Cash Capital of the principal Insurance Companies doing farm business in Allen county, is from the sworn statement of the officers of the companies filed with the State Superintendent of Insurance at Topeka:

Hartford, Ct.	$1,250,000
Phoenix, N. Y.	1,000,000
CONNECTICUT FIRE	1,000,000
American Central	600,000
CONTINENTAL, N. Y.	1,000,000
Burlington	100,000
Germania Fire	1,000,000
German, of Freeport	200,000
NIAGARA	500,000

Of the above, W. A. COWAN is agent for the Continental, Niagara, and Connecticut.

WE WISH THEM JOY.
STEELE-SOUTHWARD—At the residence of C. A. Steele, Iola, on the 1st inst., by the Rev. S. S. Weatherly. Mr. S. S. Steele and Miss Abbie M. Southard, both of Moran, Allen county, Kansas.

The above notes the union of two of the most estimable young people of Moran. Mr. Steele is now one of the well-established young business men of the place, and is known as a thoroughly reliable and worthy young man. We have always heard Miss Southard highly spoken of. She is a cultivated young lady, and an accomplished musician. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Steele returned to Moran the same evening and were tendered a pleasant reception by their friends. THE REGISTER extends congratulations.

THE CITY SCHOOLS.
OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.
October, 4th 1883.

I have been visiting the Iola city schools and studying the good condition. Teachers are enthusiastic, and appear to be enjoying their work. Pupils are generally studious, attentive and energetic, determined to reap the full benefit of this term of school. Permit me to suggest, through your columns, that the patrons visit all the rooms, and thus encourage both teacher and pupil in their noble work. Let us manifest a full appreciation of every effort on the part of the present corps of teachers to make the school a success.

The rooms are mostly crowded, and some are compelled to attend but half the time. That condition of things ought not to exist. Your district must of necessity provide more seating capacity, and that can only be done by erecting a new school building.
J. E. HENDERSON, County Sup't.

Rather Hard on the Old Man.
A young lady residing in a border town remarked, in regard to her father's snoring, that "the neighbors all set their washtubs out, thinking a thunder shower was coming on." And sensible people who are afflicted with itching piles, and humors of every name and nature, procure a box of Swayne's Ointment and bring about a speedy cure. Why fret, scratch and suffer for years, when fifty cents' worth of the above invaluable preparation will make you feel as rich as a Jew and happy as a clown at high water.
